Milwaukie Police searching for suspect in child abuse

On July 27, 2009, at about 12:45 p.m., the Milwaukie Police Department initiated a felony child abuse investigation involving 40 year old Bobby Gene Palmer of Milwaukie. Mr. Palmer became aware of the investigation and fled the area with his 12-year-old daughter in the vehicle. Amber alert was issued due to the fact police believed his daughter may be in danger while in Mr. Palmer's custody. The Amber Alert was cancelled when Mr. Palmer's daughter was located in Myrtle Creek Oregon.

The victim in this case is not being identified as this time.

Mr. Palmer has not been located yet. He was last known to be in the Myrtle Creek area driving a black 1997 Oldsmobile with OR/ 655 EDS. Anyone with information as to Mr. Palmer's whereabouts should contact the Milwaukie Police Department at 503-786-7500.

No photos of Mr. Palmer are available at this time, but he is described as a 40-year-old white male, 6ft tall, 230 lbs., hazel eyes with a shaved head and goatee.
